One Dollar

With the economy in the toilet and Joe the plumber not paying his taxes let's examine the US Dollar. Hit up the dollar store on Chestnut and see what you can buy for a dollar. This you must use as a prop in all your pictures for this ride. You are encouraged to include yourself, a fellow XPLR'er or a random Philadelphian in the picture.

Sun, Oct 17, 2PM at the steps of the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

About the ride: 3.44 miles

About the photog: Outdoors. Props and people.

Dollar Store

Let's see what you can still buy for a dollar. Buy a prop from the one dollar wall. Choose wisely b/c this prop will have to be featured in your photos.

Rittenhouse Square

Now take your prop and take pictures of yourself, each other or random Philadelphians. Be creative.

Jewelry Row

is America's oldest Diamond District (est. 1851) and one of the largest. Here hundreds of independent jewelry stores line the brick paved streets with virtually an unlimited selection of fine jewelry. Swap props with someone and take more silly pictures.

Upload your photos and send them to our Flickr group. Tag them with 'XPLR' and 'OneDollar'.

ABOUT XPLR:

A camera is your license to explore the world, and your relationship to it. Where has your license taken you recently? Part inspiration part perspiration, XPLR (explore!) events seek to unite individuals that are passionate about art and urban exploration. Meetings take place at the Philadelphia Art Museum steps. The actual subject matter and shooting location will be kept secret until the day of the event and will be disclosed at the PMA. Join us in our pursuit of creativity, or just for a fun bike ride.
